A little bit about Rodney:

Born in Huntington, WV, Rodney and his parents were active members at Westmoreland United Methodist Church during his childhood. He attended Vinson High School and Marshall University (B.M. Music Education, Organ, Trombone). Moving to Cincinnati, Rodney earned his M.M. Degree in Organ Performance from the College-Conservatory of Music, and also engaged in Doctoral Studies at the College-Conservatory of Music and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY.

Rodney is a Concert Organist, Trombonist, Director of Vocal and Instrumental Music, Educator, Presenter and Entertainer. Rodney is currently in his seventeenth year as Director of Worship and Arts at Crestview Presbyterian Church, West Chester, Ohio where he conducts a 45-voice Chancel Choir, Handbell Choir, Worship Band, and Brass Choir. Rodney describes his worship music as “authentic eclectic” as he moves from conducting to playing pipe organ, a digital organ, and grand piano, a keyboard, a Hammond B-3, and his accordion. Rodney enjoys playing concerts and conducting workshop across the USA (42 states!), Puerto Rica and all provinces in Canada.

Rodney is a connoisseur of ice cream, pizza, spaghetti, and hot dogs. He loves playing golf with his beloved wife, Cheri Smith-Barbour, a former WV Amateur Golf Team Member, Restaurant Owner, and Clarinetist. They reside in Cincinnati, Ohio.
